An Affective ENVIRONMENT

The Latin School Experience is not limited to academics and extracurricular activities. The Brother Joseph C. Fox Latin School provides students with a Catholic education. All activities, both inside and outside the classroom, are carried out in the context of Christian values. The following contribute to this affective dimension of the Latin School:

- Morning Prayer Video
- Retreat Program
- Sodality
- Student Body Mass
- Sacristans
- Daily Morning Mass
- Jubilee Choir
- Guidance Counselors
- C.R.O.S.S.
- Divisional Prayer Services
- Marianist Mentors
- School Chapel
- Catholic League

Admissions & GENERAL INFORMATION

The Brother Joseph C. Fox Latin School, a division of Kellenberg Memorial High School, admits students of any race, color, sex, national, or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities of the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, national, or ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, financial policies, activities, athletics, or other school administered programs. Kellenberg Memorial High School was founded to serve the Catholics of Long Island. Priority of admission is given to baptized Roman Catholic students.

In order to be considered for admission to the Latin School, students must successfully complete the previous grade by passing all courses and they must present adequate academic credentials. The usual means of application is through presentation of the elementary school transcript, including standardized testing. Candidates should also present a letter of intent, in their own handwriting, along with a copy of their baptismal certificate.

Tuition for the 2018-2019 school year is $10,275 + $200 annual iPad rental fee. This amount may be paid in full, in two installments, or over a ten month period. If tuition is paid in full by August 7, 2018, the family receives a $150 discount. Parents are required to enroll in an automatic direct debit program. The two-payment option asks for one-half of the tuition on August 7th and the second half on January 7th. There is a $350 non-refundable registration fee once a student has been accepted. There are no scholarships or other forms of student financial aid at the school. For further information, please contact the Latin School Office at 516-292-0200, extension 380. Applications will be accepted after October 2, 2018. No applications will be accepted after December 4, 2018.

iPad - The Latin School continues to feature a time-tested Marianist education while introducing cutting edge technology. Our students are engaging the iPad as the primary source of textbooks, notebooks, and workbooks, as well as utilizing the device as a means of sharing work collaboratively in class and with their teachers. Harnessing the vast power of this digital resource, students are meeting the traditional demands of a Catholic education with almost limitless resources.
